BergHOFF®

Catching a breath of fresh air by the sea,
enjoying the feel of loose sand beneath my feet,
hearing the wind rustle through the dune grass,

...

I simply love that sense of freedom.
I've just harvested a bucket of fresh mussels for tonight's dinner and head home.

I find one of my favourite spots around the house, savour a steaming cup of coffee and just let my mind wander. A little break before I get cooking is the perfect way to clear my head and find inspiration for tonight's menu.

I love to gather the best ingredients for a tasty meal: a delicious piece of fish or meat combined with fresh herbs and vegetables picked straight from my own garden, that's all I need to let my creative juices flow in the kitchen.

When I'm cooking I go back to basics:
the right ingredients patiently prepared with the best cooking utensils for a meal to be savoured and shared in good company, what more could a man wish for?

I gather my loved ones around the table for some quality time. The different colours, the wonderful smells, the subtle textures and just watching everyone enjoy the food I've prepared, it's those little things in life that make me happy.

RECIPE

Duck with potato & carrot mash, caramelized Brussels sprouts and a honey & rosemary jus

Ingredients

1. Potato and carrot mash with caramelized leeks:	2. Duck	3. Caramelized Brussels sprouts	4. Honey and rosemary jus
2 leeks	4 duck breasts	600g Brussels sprouts	400ml strong beef stock (or reduce 1 liter of stock to 400ml)
800g of starchy potatoes	Salt	Olive oil	butter
400g carrots	Pepper	Pepper	2 cloves of garlic
60g butter		Salt	1 small onion
20g butter extra		Honey	100ml red wine
100ml cream		Apple vinegar	Honey to taste
Salt			250ml heavy cream
Pepper			A sprig of rosemary

Instructions

1. Potato and carrot mash with caramelized leeks

Peel the carrots and potatoes and cut them into large pieces. Wash the leeks and cut both the green and the white part into very fine pieces. Boil the potatoes and carrots together in salted water until they are soft. Panfry the leeks in 20g of butter. Season with salt and pepper. Fry until the leeks start to brown. When they are done, drain the potatoes and carrots. Use a potato masher to make a smooth mash. Add the butter and cream and season with salt and pepper. Add the caramelized leeks.

2. Duck

Preheat the oven to 180°C. Score the duck breasts. (= make incisions in the skin) Season with salt and pepper on both sides. Slowly lay the duck breasts in a hot, dry pan, skin side down. Don't pull the meat, it will release when the skin is nicely brown. Turn the duck breasts over on the meat side for 1 minute, allowing it to sear. Lay the duck on a baking tray with the skin side down. Bake in the oven for approximately 7 minutes. Let the duck rest for 5 minutes.

3. Caramelized Brussels sprouts

Clean the Brussels sprouts and cut them in half. Add olive oil, pepper and salt to the sprouts and toss them so they are covered in oil and seasoning. Spread the sprouts on a baking tray and bake in the oven at 180°C until they have browned.

4. Honey and rosemary jus

Cut the onion into small pieces. Press the garlic through a garlic press. Use a saucepan to fry the onions in some butter. When the onions are soft, add the garlic. Add the wine, the stock and the cream. Let the sauce simmer until it has reached the right thickness. Season if necessary and add 3 tablespoons of honey and the sprig of rosemary.
